Children's Christmas Bingo at the CEC

It's beginning to look a lot like Christmas, at least in the Community Events Center. Every-one loves Bingo and now it's time for Fort Hood's youth to take in the action.

The Annual Children's Christmas Bingo returns to the Community Events Center December 19 for a day filled with great fun, food and prizes. $5 will get each contestant 10 games of Bingo and lunch. The doors open at 10 a.m. with the games starting at 11 a.m. Register soon, limited space available. Open to children of Soldiers, reservists, airmen, retirees and DoD civilians. For more information, call 254-532-9253.

Nature In Lights Continues to Delight at BLORA

For the 13th year, Belton Lake Outdoor Recreation Area has been transformed into a winter wonderland, November 20—January 3, from 5:30—11 pm. Visitors, drive through the 800 – acre park and enjoy illuminated displays, ranging in size from a single strand of lights to scenes spanning 40 feet high and 300 feet wide. Guests can also shop for gifts, take photographs with Santa and enjoy homemade cookies, hot chocolate and other treats at Santa's Village. The entry fee is $5 per passenger vehicle, with additional fees for larger vehicles. Nature in Lights is open to the public. Military I.D. card is not required at the Sparta Road entrance. Nature in Lights is located on North Nolan Road, Approximately 10 miles from East Range Road. For more information, call 254-287-2523 or log on to www.hoodmwr.com.
